As regards the question of granting remission in favour of prisoners undergoing fine sentences also, the references invited to paras 26 & 31 of the notes for discussion on the Circle. This has been carried out in G.O. no: G. 1365 of 17.7.19 in which it is clearly stated that in granting remissions under the G.O. of 9.7.19, the restrictions imposed under the jail manual need not be taken into consideration. But the mistake of the Supdt, Cuttack jail, seems to consist in awarding the fine sentence to the substantive sentence in the case of the prisoners who have not paid up their fines & treating their cases as falling under Clause III of the G.O. under which no remission of one month has to be granted, instead of under Clause II which provides for a remission of 15 days. According to this calculation prisoners, nos: 4669 & 4670, who paid their fines before the expiry of the sentence were granted 15 days remission under Clause II of the G.O. of 9.7.19, whereas

The remaining 3 prisoners in the same cases ~~[illegible]~~ who were also sentenced to undergo 6 months rigorous imprisonment as the other two but on not pay up their fines, have been granted one month's remission under Clause III of the G.O. (vide para 2 of the Supdt. letter of 11.9.19 — 36: 7). And since the misconstrued results of releasing prisoners who have not paid up their fines earlier than those who have paid up their fines, which is certainly not contemplated either under the G.O. of 9.7.19 or the G.O. of 17.7.19.

Need not here enquire what rule the Supdt has adopted this method of calculation. She has made so much talko as it seems to be necessary to have it rectified at once. She may then happens provided and to the G.O.P.'s & she may be requested to carry the Supdt to take immediate action to rectify the mistake & release the prisoners on correct dates under the rules & to submit a report in the matter.

Summary of proposed arrangements.

1. Regarding general offenders, the Government of India think that releases and remissions may be given on the following scale:-

A. Males.- (i) Prisoners upto a number not exceeding : per cent in each province, whose conduct in jail has not been bad, who hav not more than two convictions and whose original offence was not of an org ised character or of such a nature as to render them dangerous to society to public order or to result, if they were released, in a renewal of blood feuds, may at the discretion of and subject to the detailed instructions issued by the Local Government, be released, the number so privileged being spread as evenly as possible over all localities in each province.

(ii) In addition to the above all prisoners under sentence of one month or less, who will, on the date fixed have worked out hal their sentences, should be released.

(iii) All prisoners not released under the above orders, should be granted remissions of sentences on the following scale, provided that their conduct, whilst in jail has not been bad.

(a) Those under sentence of one month's imprisonment or le who will not, on the date fixed, have worked out half their sentence, shoul be granted remission of half their sentence.

(b) Those under sentence of more than one month and not more than 6 months' imprisonment, 15 days' remission.

(c) Those under sentence of more than six months and not more than 12 months imprisonment, one month's remission.

(d) Those under sentence of more than one year's imprison- ment, one month per year of sentence imposed.

B. Females.- All female prisoners whose offences were not of a serious character, should at the discretion of and subject to the detai instructions issued by the Local Government, be released, those not released receiving remissions on the terms quoted for male prisoners, under A (iii) above.

Similarly, all civil debtors whose debts do not exceed Rs 10 who on account of genuine poverty cannot pay their debts and whose debts were not due to fraud on their own part, should in addition to the 10 per cent under A (i) above be released, and their debts defrayed by Govern er

An estimate of the probable number of such persons and of the cost that will be entailed by the discharge of their debts should be submitted at an early date to the Government of India.

2. In respect of the question of persons sentenced under chapter VI of the Indian Penal Code for offences against the State, or for kindred offences under either special laws, such as the Newspapers (Incitment to offences) Act or the provisions of laws under which the sanction of Government is required for a prosecution, the following principles have been suggested as appropriate in dealing with them.

(1) Those sentenced for opinions only under section 124.A, to be released altogether upon an undertaking of good behaviour.

(11) Those serving sentences for political dacoities and for conspiracy only without conviction for murder or attempted murder or abetment of murder, who have done five years out of a total sentence of from seven to ten years, or seven years out of a longer time, or a life sentence, might have the balance of their sentences suspended, provided they pledge themselves to abstain from political agitation or conspiracy in future, if they keep their word, the rest of the sentence would be remitte after a sufficient period of probation. If they do not, they would be rearrested and would have to serve the remainder of their sentences.

(111) Those who have been convicted of murder or attempted murder or abetment of murder to have any sentence above a single life sentence, remitted.

(IV) Those of the class mentioned in sub para (111) who have been sentenced to shorter terms to receive the same remissions as are granted quoted to prisoners generally. The Governor-General in Council is, however of opinion that these or similar principles can only be adopted as a general guide and that the case of each individual should be carefully examined by the local Government concerned in the light of the convict's original records, his behaviour in jail his present ~~behaxiuuxx~~ attitude and the existing political conditions in the province.

3. There is another category of prisoners which seems to deserve special consideration. In some provinces, a number of people have during the latter part of the war been convicted of offences in connection with the looting of bazaars and similar crimes, arising out of high prices, scarcity and poverty and it is suggested that any persons sentenced to periods not exceeding six months, whose offences are attributed to these causes might at the discretion of the local Government be released on the date eventually fixed. Caution of course should be exercised in respect of this class of convicts if the cost of living and prices remain on the same level as at present.

4. There is a further category of prisoners which in the opinion of the Government of India deserve special consideration. These are persons who have been convicted of offences arising out of serious and widespread riots. Some such cases are so recent that it might be though premature to exercise any clemency at present. Others, however are of more ancient date. Among these may be mentioned the Jhang riots in the Punjab and the Bakrid riots in Bihar- and it is possible that similar disturbances have occurred elsewhere. So far as these riots were racial in character it is clearly necessary to proceed with due deliberation. What might be taken as a gracious and merciful act by the community members of which were responsible for such outrages, might be regarded as gross disregard and contempt of their feelings and sufferings by the community to which the victims belonged, but the danger of such sentiments being entertained would be somewhat minimised if clemency were extended in equal measure to members of all communities concerned.

5. It is not proposed to extend clemency to persons serving out imprisonment in default of furnishing security to be of good behaviour or to keep the peace.

6. These proposals do not deal with the case of persons who have been convicted of military offences and are still members of the Army. That question is under separate consideration On the other hand, any soldier convict whose sentence of imprisonment was accompanied by one of dismissal from the Army, is now a civil prisoner, and if otherwise qualified, will be eligible for clemency in accordance with the proposals in paragraphs 1 to 4 above.

The extension of clemency to convicts imprisoned in the Andaman Islands and to political detenus forms the subject of separate consideration.

7. The calculation of remissions of sentences cannot of course be undertaken until the actual date has been fixed uppn which the calculations will be based, but it should be possible to commence work at once with regard to the selection of the prisoners to be released under the orders of the local Government in accordance with para 1 clause (i) of this summary as well as with the calculation of remissions in the case of long term prisoners.

8. It is desirable that all persons who benefit by these orders should be aware of the circumstances in which clemency is extended and it is suggested that orders may be issued to ensure that they may be fully informed at the time.

~~Bangalore~~

SIR,

With reference to your letter No.G.23168/Pris.68-18-2 dated 11th April 1919, forwarding a copy of the summary of arrangements which are being made in British India in the matter of releases and remissions of sentences on the signa of peace and requesting to furnish lists of prisoners prepa on the lines indicated therein etc., I have the honor to sta as follows :-

2. What has been done now is the selection of prisoners release and for the grant of remissions in accordance with principles laid down in para 1 A(1) of the summary of propos arrangements referred to above.

3. I am forwarding herewith the following lists of prisoners prep by the Superintendents of Jails and state that those include therein fully answer the descriptions detailed in the summary arrangements. Selection for release or for the grant of remission may be made according to the scale prescribed:-

(1) List No. 1 - showing names &c. of convicts of the Bangalore Central Jail who have been recommended for release;

(2) List No.2 - showing names etc. of convicts of the Bangalore Central Jail who have been recommended for the grant of remissions.

From

The Inspector-General of Prisons in Mysore, Banga

To

The Secretary to the Government of Mysore, Department.

Dated 7th May 1919
Despatched Received

General No. 1071
No. 72-19
Enclosure No. 5

SUBJECT

Submitting lists of prisoners of the B. C. and Mysore Jails recommended for release & for the grant of remission to prisoners confined therein, on the occasion of the signature of Peace

(3) List No.3 - showing names &c. of life-term convicts recommended for the grant of remissions

(4) List No.4 - showing names &c. of civil prisoners of the Bangalore Central Jail whose debts do not exceed Rs.100/-

(5) List No.5 - consolidated list showing names &c. of prisoners of the Mysore Jail recommended for release as well as for the grant of remissions.

4. In this connection, I may bring to the notice of Governme that the summary of suggestions of Government of India is silent as to how prisoners who have sentences in default of payment of fines annexed to their substantive imprisonments have to be deal with in case such prisoners are selected for release-i.e., are they to be released at once, although they have not paid their fines or are they to be detained until fines are levied or until the alternative sentences executed. Further, it is also silent as regards convicts who are at present undergoing imprisonment in default of payment of fines. I request that these points may be made clear.

5. Usually, prisoners sentenced to long term imprisonments are not confined in the Lock-ups. But there may be some prisone of the kind who are detained in Lock-ups pending transfer to the Jails. I shall submit supplemental lists of such prisoners together with lists of prisoners entitled for remissions of senten in the case of those who will be received into Jails after the date of this letter.

6. As regards short term prisoners undergoing a sentence of one month and less, the proposed arrangement lays down definite instructions. I do not think it will serve any useful purpose to prepare a list of such prisoners, as no date as has yet been fixed for their release, and before the date which may be fixed, many of such prisoners may have been released and many others may have been received.

7. There are no prisoners confined either in Jails or Lock-up who come under the category of those described as paras 2,3,4,& 6 of the summary of arrangements of the Government of India.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant;

Inspector-General of Prisonment.

Dated, Bangalore 11th July 1919.

Dear Sir,

With reference to your D. O. No. 602-12 dated the 9th instant forwarding copy of Government Order No. G. 589-600/ Pris 68-18-5 of the same date regarding the releases and remission of sentences of prisoners on the occasion of the signature of Peace, I beg to invite reference to para 6 of the Government Order quoted above wherein it is stated that all female prisoners should be released provided their offences were not of a serious nature, and request to be informed the class of offences which are to be considered as of a serious nature in the case of female prisoners.

2. There are some female prisoners in this Jail, who though convicted of murder deserve the clemency of being released on account of their very good conduct in the Jail, their extreme youth at the time of the commission of the offence or the circumstance of the cases in which they were convicted. I have therefore included in the list of prisoners for release already submitted through the Inspector - - General of Prisons in Mysore, the names of a few female prisoners of the above type, for the favourab consideration of Government.

Letter No. 734, dated the 5th June 1919, from the Ad[illegible]
Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department, Public to all local Governments and Administrations, ~~Home Department, (Public)~~.

I am directed to address you regarding the method of celebrating in India the forthcoming signing of peace. The Government of India have no desire to limit the discretion of Local Governments in the matter, but they think that His Excellency / His Honour / you the Governor in Council / the Lieutenant Governor (in Council) will agree that it is desirable that the main outlines of the peace celebrations should be uniform in all Provinces. It is probable that the signing of peace will be celebrated in England during this summer, but the hot weather would be an unsuitable time for celebrations in India and the Government of India are therefore of opinion that the general celebration in India of the signing of peace should take place during the forthcoming cold weather. The actual date to be fixed for the purpose will be settled later, and a further communication will be made to you on this point. The Government of India's suggestions regarding the form which the celebrations in the cold weather should take, will also follow.

2. In the meantime the Governor General in Council is of opinion that the actual signing of the peace treaty should not pass unnoticed in India. The date to be fixed for the celebration of peace in England will be communicated to you as soon as it is known here; and the Government of India think that that date should be notified by all Local Governments as a public holiday, and that flags should be flown and such other methods adopted as His Excellancy the Governor in Council / His Honour the Lieutenant Governor (in Council) / you may think suitable to indicate that the day is one of public rejoicing.

3. The release of prisoners and remission of sentences regarding which separate orders have issued, should not wait till the cold weather but should take place on or as soon as possible

D. O. No. 51/F 33

OFFICE OF THE SUPERINTENDENT,
CENTRAL JAIL,

Dated, Bangalore, 17th July 1919

Dear Sir,

In continuation of my D. O. letter No. 50/F 33 dated the 11th instant, I beg that you will be pleased to instruct me on the following points:—

(1) Under Section 291 (1) of the Jail Manual no ordinary remission is earned by a convict undergoing imprisonment in default of payment of fine.— Can he get the special remission now allowed if his conduct has not been bad.

(2) Similarly can a prisoner sentenced to imprisonment and fine, get the special remission now allowed both on the period of substantive sentence of imprisonment and also on the period of additional imprisonment in default of payment of fine, if his conduct has not been bad.

(3) Under Section 291 (2) Mysore Jail Manual no ordinary remission is allowed in respect of any sentence sentence of simple imprisonment except for any continuous period not being less than one month, during which the prisoner labours voluntarily- Can he get the special remission now allowed even if he does not labour or if the sentence of simple imprisonment is less than one month, if his conduct has not been bad.

The favor of early instructions is solicited.

Yours Sincerely,

M. Venkataratnam

Sir,

In continuation of my confidential demi-official letter No. G.602-12 dated the 9th July 1919, communicating the orders of Government(No.G.589-600 of the same date) on the subject of the release of prisoners and remission of sentences on the signature of Peace, I am directed to state that the order should be given effect on the 19th instant, the date fixed for the peace celebrations in England. If however in any particular place, it is found unpracticable to give effect to the order on that date, the releases and remissions should take place as soon as possible at date.

2. A report showing the number of prisoners released and other particulars should be submitted to Government in due course.

3. The list of male prisoners proposed to be released upto a limit not exceeding 10 per cent of the total number of prisoners, called for in para VI of G.O. No.G.589-600/Prisons 68-18-5 dated the 9th instant need not be submitted for the orders of Government. Releases may be made as per instructions contained in that paragraph; but particulars about this class of releases should be embodied in the final report.

Government hope that it will be possible to give effect to the order in all jails and lock-ups in the State on the 19th instant.

Sir,

With reference to your D.O. No. G 602-1: dated 9-7-1917, I have the honour to submit the list as per para VI of G.O. No. G 589-600 Prisons 68-18. dated 9-7-1919, 10% of the total number of prisoners fit to receive the clemency. In preparing this list the present total number of prisoners on 6-7-1919 namely 136, excluding the undertrials and men in whose case the sentences are suspended, was taken. 10% of this number namely 3 prisoners and two more are included in this list, so as to meet the discrepancy which may occur on the day of release from the fact that the total number of prisoners may increase.

The maximum number of prisoners this jail had for the past few months is 150. The present number may increase before the date fixed for release. To meet such an emergency two more names have been suggested. Date 19-7-1919 has been assumed as the probable date of release. In case it is otherwise and postponement occurs, some of the prisoners whose names have been included may become entitled for release by virtue of the remission they are entitled under other rules. The other lists are prepared as per instructions calculating the remissions and ~~cal~~ -~~tions~~ are ready for action.

Dated Bangalore, 17th July 1919

I am directed to invite a reference to my letter No. dated the 4th June 1919, regarding the extension of clemenc oners on the signature of peace.

2. I am to say that in the case of prisoners whose sentences include fractions of a year, the remission for such fractions will be in proportion to the remission of one month per year i.e. a week for every three months. Thus a prisoner sentenced to 2 years and 3 months should get 2 months and 1 week's remission, and a prisoner sentenced to 2 years 9 months should ge 2 months and 3 week's remission.

Adverting to your confidential demi-official letter
. G.602-12 dated 9th July 1919 forwarding copy of vernment Order No.. 589-600 dated 9th July 1919 regarding e releases and remission of sentences of prisoners on e date of the celebration of the auspicious occasion the signature of peace treaty and the subsequent commu-cations received on the subject, I have the honor to ate that on the day in question there were neither isoners sentenced under Chapter VI of the Indian Penal de or for kindred offences under other laws, nor any male prisoners nor any civil prisoner in any lock-Up in e District. There were only general offenders and they mbered only 10. Of these 10 prisoners, 5 (2 in Channaipatna Lock-Up and 3 in the Arsikere Lock-Up) being under ntence of one month and having worked out half their rtence were released on the day of the celebration. Of e remaining, 4 prisoners (1 Arkalgud, 2 District Lock-Up d 1 Saklespur) were granted remission of 15 days and (Saklespur) was given remission of one month.

. I personally explained to the prisoners in the Disict Lock-Up the circumstances under which they were ven remission of sentence, and the lock-Up Officers
the mofussil were directed to do likewise at the time relea-se or intimating remission of sentences of

SIR,

In connection with the special releases and the grant of remissions to prisoners confined in the Jails and Lock-up of the State, on account of signature of Peace, I have the honor to bring to the notice of Government a mistake committed by the Offg. Superintendent, Bangalore Central Jail, in granting remissio to prisoners undergoing fine sentences.

2 Prisoners, who have had fine sentences to undergo in addition to the substantive sentences, have been granted remissions by him, both for substantive as well as fine sentences. Consequentl those who had not paid up their fines on the 19th of July 1919 got more remissions than those who had paid up their fines and have been released earlier than the latter.

3 The Superintendent quotes D.O. letter No.G.1355/Pris. 68-1 -4 dated 17th July 1919 from the Chief Secretary to Government addressed to him direct as his authority for this wrong procedure. But this D.O. does not authorise the grant of remissions for fine sentences.

4. Government order No.G.589-600/Pris.C8-18-5 dated 9th July 1919 is silent in this respect and as such it is clear prisoners who had had fine sentences should not get remission for such sentences.

5. Now the Superintendent seeks for my instructions in the case of 5 such prisoners when he found it difficult to releas them. I submit the whole correspondence in original in the m and request that very early orders of Government may kindly b passed on the subject. A list of such prisoners has been cal for from the Superintendent and will be sent up to Government its receipt in this office.

6. Further, I am also sending herewith another file of co pondence between this office and the District Magistrate, Kal regarding two prisoners who had already been released by virt remissions granted to them for fine sentences. This file dis that, on the date of release, the Superintendent appears to h told the prisoners that the fines awarded to them would be pai by Government.
